Dr. Suraj Kumar

Senior Advisor, KISS

SDG Advisor, State Governments - Chhattisgarh & Tripura

SDG Advisor – UN in India

SDG Advisor – Ministry of Electronics & Information Technology, Government of India

I am pleased to add my message to the 'KISS & the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development' book, released during the Kalinga Institute of Social Sciences (KISS)'s observation of the global UN75 campaign in October 2020.

The United Nations Resolution “Transforming our World: the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development” has been endorsed in 2015 by all member nations of the United Nations. Now, five years down the road, the UN is observing its 75th anniversary during a year of unprecedented global disruption, compounded by a global health crisis that has triggered severe economic and social upheaval. While navigating these times of crisis, it is critical to understand how the global community can emerge stronger and better-equipped to work towards the goal of sustainable development vis-à-vis the 2030 Agenda.

Thus, 2020 – and the years that follow – must undoubtedly promote dialogue and collective global cooperation, to ensure that no-one is forgotten in the path to a sustainable, better future for all. The global UN75 campaign, launched in January 2020, fosters global dialogues and discussions in various levels, from classrooms to boardrooms & parliaments to village halls, worldwide. Placing a strong emphasis on online engagement, this initiative works to find innovative ways to engage marginalized & hard-to-reach audiences, in an attempt to crowdsource inclusive public solutions to global challenges while encouraging local action & bridging gaps between groups & sectors.

As an educational institute and NGO that works tirelessly to empower tribal communities in Odisha, KISS has the vision of sustainable development at the core of its work ethos. Indeed, the institute is powered by the belief that a better world – free from hunger, poverty & illiteracy – is possible. At KISS, we have consistently promoted analysis, advocacy and local action for the SDGs – from implementing innovative initiatives to ensure our campus & learning environments nurture empowered youth who can pave the path for a sustainable future, to strategising and implementing community level projects that foster a vision of sustainable development for Odisha's diverse tribal communities and rural hinterlands. Since our inception more than two decades ago, we have worked to empower & engage tribal youth and tribal community members by amplifying their voices in multi-stakeholder & multi-platform conversations about the path to a sustainable future - voices that are often underrepresented in global discussions.

This volume presents a roadmap for implementation of SDGs at KISS in a methodical manner. Starting with an understanding of the 17 goals and their targets, the book goes on to provide a systematic SDG-wise brief overview of the global and Indian status of each goal, while also outlining and assessing strategies employed by KISS to address the problems outlined therein.

This book aims to be a useful resource for researchers, policy influencers, implementers, students and activists aiming to achieve the SDG agenda. I hope that readers will learn that at KISS, the global agenda for sustainable development has been a lived experience that has been part of the organisation's working vision since inception. Herein, KISS hopes to inspire a sense of urgency, while also sharing fresh & innovative ideas & initiatives for tackling these pressing global challenges, specifically within the context of indigenous rights and sustainable development for tribal communities in India.

The Kalinga Institute of Social Sciences (KISS)

The Kalinga Institute of Social Sciences (KISS), Bhubaneswar, India, is an educational institute, 60,000 strong, powered by the belief that a better world - free from hunger, poverty & illiteracy - is possible. We provide free of cost education, accommodation, food and healthcare to over 30,000 tribal students currently studying at our main campus in Bhubaneswar, in addition to 15,000 alumni working at the grassroots as changemakers in their under-served communities, and an additional 15,000 students spread across our satellite campuses.

KISS is inspired by the vision of our founder - philanthropist and educator, Dr. Achyuta Samanta. Thanks to his foresight and vision, our students are educated and empowered through a holistic approach involving academic, sports and vocational training from Kindergarten to Post-Graduation.

For more than two decades, the endeavours of KISS - both in the classroom and grassroots - have taken the form of a silent revolution, as we have learned and grown alongside the tribal community - directly and indirectly interacting with more than 150,000 individuals. Our experience shows that, given access to equal opportunities, there is no limit to what tribal students can achieve. Thus, it is our lifelong mission to empower tribal communities by ensuring that everyone has equal access to opportunities such as:

FREE EDUCATION

FREE FOOD

FREE HEALTHCARE

FREE ACCOMMODATION

As an educational institution in a multicultural society, we understand the necessity of placing an emphasis on history, culture and language because it is no secret that when a student feels like they belong in an educational context, they perform better. We attempt to eradicate educational inequalities by providing equal opportunities that empower our students with the knowledge that they have both the responsibility and right to be in India's best classrooms.

Thus, we prioritise efforts to preserve the varied tribal cultures and languages from over 62 tribes represented in our student body, simultaneously empowering our students. In recognition of this concerted effort to promote education of and for tribal students, KISS was also granted Deemed to be University status by the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India, in 2017.

Since 2015, KISS has been accorded Special Consultative Status with the UN Economic and Social Council and has also been associated with the UNDPI. In addition, KISS has been frequently liaising with the UN Development Programme, UN Women, UN Population Fund, and UN Department of Public Information. KISS prides itself on actively promoting and contributing to all 17 of the UN's Sustainable Development Goals.

About the SDGs

The Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) are a bold, universal agreement to end poverty in all its dimensions and craft an equal, just and secure world - for people, planet and prosperity by 2030.

The 17 SDGs and 169 targets are a part of 'Transforming our World: The 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development', which was adopted by 193 Member States at the landmark UN General Assembly Summit in September 2015. They came into effect on January 1, 2016.

The SDGs have been developed through an unprecedented consultative process that brought national governments and millions of citizens together from across the globe, to negotiate and adopt the ambitious agenda.

Contextualising the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development

The 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development is a plan of action for people, planet and prosperity. It also seeks to strengthen universal peace in larger freedom. It demands new approaches to harnessing the knowledge, skills and creativity of and for all actors.

Development progress requires holistic thinking, moving beyond separate mandates and structures and exploring linkages between different thematic issues. The 2030 Agenda necessitates an issues-based modus operandi, fostering new collaborative partnerships to identify key problems and opportunities. The principle of "Leaving no one behind" requires a stronger focus on efforts to localise the agenda, which in turn demands unprecedented effort in terms of community engagement, awareness raising, local level action, as well as local level data collection. A vast and diverse country like India demands the involvement of all stakeholders to effectively facilitate the localisation of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

As one of the world's countries with the youngest population, India faces an unprecedented window of opportunity to harness the potential of its youth towards inclusive economic growth and social cohesion, in harmony with nature. In order to seize the opportunity, learning and training will be a key driver of transformation. Improving learning outcomes towards sustainable development thinking will be one of the single most catalytic efforts, which need to be undertaken.

KISS is a blueprint of 5P's in Action

People - Language Lab

KISS boasts of a Language Lab, in collaboration with the Bernard van Leer Foundation, wherein mother tongue-based multilingual education is imparted to tribal children. Even though 15 out of the 30 districts in Odisha have dense tribal populations, there is no acknowledgement of tribal people in education. In fact, history textbooks do not mention the contribution of tribal people to the freedom movement. There is no appreciation of tribal culture and languages, which creates a sense of inferiority among tribal children. To combat this, the Language Lab encourages education in native languages, besides teaching the English language to the tribal children. This model is also based on the premise that learning and psycho-social development is optimised, if children are taught in their native language.

Prosperity - Vocational Centre

The principle of 'Prosperity' finds reflection in the vocational centre being run at the KISS University. It is based on the concept of 'earn while you learn'. The trainings at the centre link education with productivity, economic development and individual prosperity. In doing so, they ensure sustainable livelihoods. The course designs are based on chemical, appliqué, painting, food processing, tailoring, knitting, and drinking water (to be launched soon). Vocational products included phenyl, hand wash, liquid detergent, tribal paintings, uniforms, etc. The buyers currently include KIIT and KISS, although the school is in talks with big suppliers such as Big Bazaar, etc. One-third of the surplus sales' proceeds are given to students, under KISS' innovative 'Earn While you Learn' programme that provides supplementary income to students while encouraging them to study. Vocational classes are held for an hour everyday.

Peace - Life Skills Education

United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA) supports the Life Skills Programme at KISS University. The programme is also being run in several government and private schools, for which KISS is the technical partner. So far, 750 teachers and 550 peer educators have been trained. 130 teachers have been engaged for imparting the sessions to standards VI to IX. It is this knowledge that the students take back to their communities. Using this knowledge, students are challenging orthodox tribal cultural practices like child marriage, patriarchy, discrimination against women, alcoholism, etc.

Partnerships - Smart Class Room-Oracle

Making learning more enjoyable for children, KISS uses digitisation. Smart classrooms, enabled by Oracle, have made the teaching-learning process at KISS simpler and more comprehensive for both the students and teachers.

Planet - Mega Kitchen

KISS is effectively implementing several green initiatives, thereby reducing its carbon footprint and conserving the planet – an example of the practice of Goals 7 (Affordable and Clean Energy) and 13 (Combating Climate Change) of the SDGs. KISS University has a 1,000 kilograms biogas plant, with the capacity to convert locally produced food and kitchen waste to manure and related energy. It also has an award-winning, fully-mechanised steam kitchen, a 600 KWp (kilowatts peak) photovoltaic plant, a solar water heating system, the provision to distribute solar lanterns, a laundry system that uses minimal water and detergent, a bio SDP plant to treat waste water without energy sources, a rainwater harvesting system and an in-house baking unit.
